The Committee has overall responsibility for approving and evaluating all compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company as they affect the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and the Company’s other executive officers (collectively, including the CEO, "Executive Officers"). For purposes of this Charter “executive officers” means the individuals designated by the Company as officers for purposes of section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time (the “Exchange Act”).

Membership and Organization

The Committee shall consist of at least three members of the Board of Directors, with the exact number to be determined by the Board of Directors. Committee members shall be appointed from time to time by the Board of Directors having given consideration to the recommendations, if any, from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, but not less than annually. Also having given consideration to the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, if any, the Board of Directors shall designate a Chair of the Committee, provided that if the Board of Directors does not so designate a Chair the members of the Committee, by a majority vote, may designate a Chair. The Chair (or in his or her absence a member designated by the Chair) shall preside at all meetings of the Committee.

Committee members may be removed, without cause, by the affirmative vote of the majority of the Board of Directors at any time. Any Committee member may resign effective upon giving oral or written notice to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Corporate Secretary or the Board of Directors (unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation).

Each member of the Committee shall meet the independence standards that may be established from time to time by the Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq") and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and are applicable to the Committee, subject to any available exceptions. Each member of the Committee shall also meet any additional independence standards that may be established from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. In addition, each member shall qualify as a “non-employee director” as such term is defined in Section 16 of the Exchange Act, or any successor provisions thereto, and shall meet any other requirements imposed by applicable law, rules, and regulations subject to available exceptions.
The Committee shall meet periodically, as deemed necessary by the Chair of the Committee. All meetings shall be held at the call of the Chair of the Committee. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise determine, the Committee may make rules for the conduct of its business, but unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors or in such rules, the business of the Committee shall be conducted as nearly as possible in the same manner as is provided in the bylaws of the Company.

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to select, retain, or obtain the advice of, any adviser to assist it in the performance of its duties, including any outside compensation, legal, accounting or other consultants or advisers (collectively, “Advisers”), but only after taking into consideration all factors relevant to the adviser’s independence from management including those specified in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5605(d)(3) and any other applicable Nasdaq listing standard. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any Adviser retained by the Committee and shall have sole authority to approve such Adviser’s fees and other terms and conditions of such Adviser’s retention. The Committee shall have the sole authority to conduct investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Adviser retained by the Committee and other administrative expenses.

The Committee may request any director, officer or employee of the Company, the Company’s outside counsel or independent auditors or such other persons as it deems appropriate to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The CEO shall not be present during, nor participate in, deliberations or voting in connection with any compensation matters related to the compensation of the CEO. The Committee shall have full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company in connection with the discharge of its responsibilities.

The Committee shall ensure that any disclosure required by the rules and regulations of the SEC or Nasdaq related to the foregoing is included in the Company’s proxy statement.

- Administer the stock and other equity-based compensation plans of the Company (other than with respect to cash compensation of and equity awards to non-employee members of the Board of Directors for their service as directors and committee members of the Board, which shall be determined by the entire Board of Directors) in accordance with the terms of such plans and provide necessary approval in order to qualify the Company’s equity compensation plans for various exemptions that may be established by the SEC under Section 16 of the Exchange Act.
• Determine, as applicable in connection with the Company’s stock plans, such matters as eligibility for participation; persons to receive awards; the amount, form and other terms and conditions of awards; the form of agreements pertaining to such awards; the manner and form of deferral elections; or, when appropriate, the authorization of the Company’s purchase of its stock for allocation to the accounts of persons to whom awards have been made under such plans.

Evaluate Say on Pay Vote outcomes and other stockholder input on executive compensation pay programs as part of the Committee’s ongoing assessment of executive compensation programs and policies.
